St. John's Korean United Methodist Church
2600 Massachusetts Ave. Lexington, MA

Position Overview

St. John's Korean United Methodist Church is seeking a dedicated and passionate Youth Pastor to lead and disciple students in grades 6–12. This part-time position provides an opportunity to mentor, teach, and spiritually nurture youth in a supportive and vibrant church community.

Responsibilities

- Saturday Night Fellowship – Plan and lead weekly gatherings, typically consisting of worship, fellowship, and a Bible study. The Youth Pastor has full creative freedom in structuring these meetings, including organizing special activities such as apple picking, ice skating, movie nights, and other outings to foster community and fellowship.
- Sunday Youth Worship – Organize and lead Sunday youth services, including preaching and coordinating praise. A youth praise team is available to lead worship.
- Annual Winter Retreat – Organize and oversee a spiritually enriching retreat for students.
- Discipleship & Mentorship – Foster relationships with students through one-on-one mentorship and small group discipleship.

Qualifications

The ideal candidate:

- Is fluent in English
- Is pursuing or has completed theological education
- Has a heart for youth ministry and is passionate about leading students in their walk with Jesus

- Can commit to 2–3 years of ministry
- Serves year-round and communicates time-off in advance
- Korean proficiency is a plus but not required

This role is a great opportunity for a seminary student or recent graduate to apply theological training in a dynamic ministry setting.

About St. John's KUMC

St. John's has a thriving youth group with a steady attendance of 20–30 students. The students genuinely love and support one another, with many seeking to grow deeper in their faith. The church values and fully supports the youth ministry, partnering with the Youth Pastor to ensure success.
