FASPE | Fellowships at Auschwitz for the Study of Professional Ethics

Summer Ethics Fellowship for Early-Career Clergy/Religious Leaders

PROGRAM DATES
June 18 – July 2, 2027

Germany & Poland

Fully Funded

Visit Key Historical Sites

Fellows spend two intensive weeks in Germany and Poland, visiting sites of historical significance and examining the role of German clergy & religious leaders in enabling and supporting Nazi policies.

Fellows then draw on historical examples to reflect on contemporary professional responsibility and the ethical issues currently facing religious leaders today.

Learn with and from Peers in Different Professions

Clergy & Religious Leaders Fellows travel with the Medical and Journalism cohorts and benefit from both structured and informal dialogue on how their respective fields navigate ethical challenges.

Join a Robust Community of Ethical Leaders

Fellows join a community of more than 1,000 alumni and participate in continued learning and leadership opportunities.

ELIGIBILITY

FASPE Clergy applicants must either be enrolled in graduate school preparing for work as a religious leader at the time of application or they must be working as a religious leader with a relevant graduate degree received May 2019 or after. Those applying as students may be studying at a seminary, divinity school, rabbinical school, Muslim chaplaincy program or other graduate program related to religious OR theological training. Applicants do not need to be ordained or planning to pursue ordination to be eligible. Applicants from all faith traditions are encouraged. FASPE seeks Clergy Fellows with diverse interests and backgrounds, including those pursuing careers as religious leaders of congregations, as chaplains, at universities, hospitals, prisons, corporations, in the armed services, and in other settings. FASPE programs are non-denominational. Candidates of all nationalities, religious, ethnic, and cultural backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

> What stayed with me most from my time with FASPE were the conversations that happened outside the seminar room over meals, long bus rides, and our free time. Sitting with fellows from two vastly different vocational callings at the same historical sites, wrestling with the same hard questions from completely different vantage points, helped sharpen my own thinking as a clergy person in ways a single-discipline conversation never could. The interdisciplinary exchange of perspective was the heart of the fellowship for me.
